

To which extent is the cosmic star-formation history a reflection of the (cold) fuel supply, or of changing SF (in-)efficiency